

Law Enforcement Dimensions, LLC

Policing with perspective

MAKE ANNUAL INSERVICE TRAINING GREAT AGAIN!

THE LED ADVANTAGE!

- MPTC certified - our program meets your annual, legal update requirement
- Seasoned instructors - motivated lawyers with law enforcement backgrounds
- Practical written materials – each attendee receives an easy-to-understand, 135 page manual
- Convenient – we come to your station or other location
- Updates – you get monthly updates for your officers
- Cost effective – “investing in good training radically reduces the risks of liability.”
R. Darrell, “Emerging Trends in Police Failure-to-Train Liability” IJPS 2000, Vol. 23 at 169-193.

THE LED DIFFERENCE!

Our classroom style fosters officer engagement and interaction for superior results to online training. The LED approach increases your officers’ confidence and decreases the likelihood of lawsuits.

“Must Have” Coverage on:

- Juvenile arrest & processing
- “Starbucks” trespassing situations
- Drawn gun during MV stops
- Citation ethics rules
- “Red flag” & stun guns

YOUR INSTRUCTORS

John Sofis Scheft, Esq.

For over 25 years, this former prosecutor and defense attorney has been training officers all over the Commonwealth, and publishing the leading police manuals on criminal law, procedure, motor vehicle, and juvenile issues. From 2005-2012, John developed the MPTC Veteran Inservice Program. He is a graduate of Harvard and Northeastern Law School.

Lt. James Raso, Esq.

Jim has served with the Lawrence Police Department since 1995. He has been appointed to the SWAT team, FTO program and Honor Guard. Jim is also a DRE and experienced police trainer, who graduated from the Mass School of Law in 1997.

Officer Philip Magnuson, Esq.

Phil had a combined 23 years with the Yarmouth Police Department before he retired this year. A graduate of Dartmouth College and Boston University Law School, there isn’t much that Phil did not do during his career, including patrol, FTO, detective, law instructor, records management, evidence officer, firearms licensing, hackney and alcohol licensing.

THE COST

- John Sofis Scheft (8 hours: $1,900; 4 hours: $1,500)
- James Raso or Phil Magnuson (8 hours: $1,100; 4 hours: $825)
- Materials: $13 per officer
- Force multiplier! Join up with neighboring departments

CONTACT US!

Law Enforcement Dimensions, LLC
7 Central Street, Suite 100
Arlington, MA 02476 info@ledimensions.com
(tel) 781.646.4377

